

NC Coastal Plain Butterflies

Carolinas Butterfly Monitoring Program | ver. 31 Mar 2024

Pipevine Swallowtail Spicebush Swallowtail E. Tiger Swallowtail Black Swallowtail Palamedes Sw.

Falcate Orangetip (spring only) Cabbage White Zebra Swallowtail E. Tiger Swallowtail (yellow form) Giant Swallowtail (very large; uncommon)

Sleepy Orange (medium) Orange Sulphur (medium) Cloudless Sulphur (large) Little Yellow (small) Great Purple Hairstreak

Red-banded Hairstreak Gray Hairstreak Banded Hairstreak (May-June only) Summer/Holly Azure (spring-fall)/(spring only) E. Tailed-Blue

Juniper Hairstreak (uncommon) Hessel's Hairstreak (rare; White Cedar specialist) Henry's Elf (spring only) E. Pine Elf (spring only; uncommon) White-M Hairstreak (fairly rare)

Please visit www.jeffpippen.com/butterflies/nc-butterflies.htm to see more examples of these species plus additional, less common species not depicted in this Quick ID Guide

NC Coastal Plain Brushfoots Carolinas Butterfly Monitoring Program | ver. 31 Mar 2024

Monarch

Variegated Fritillary

Pearl Crescent

Phaon Crescent
(tidewater counties only)

Little Metalmark
(Longleaf Pine habitats only)

Viceroy

Gulf Fritillary

Gulf Fritillary

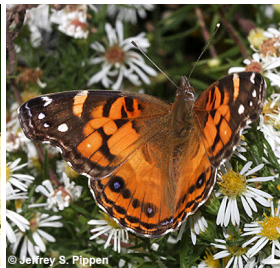

E. Comma

Question Mark

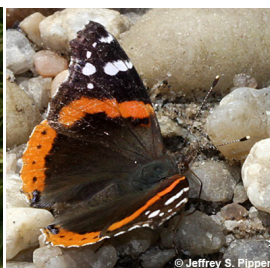

American Snout
(uncommon)

American Lady

Painted Lady
(uncommon)

Red Admiral

Mourning Cloak

Common Buckeye

Common Buckeye

Hackberry Emperor

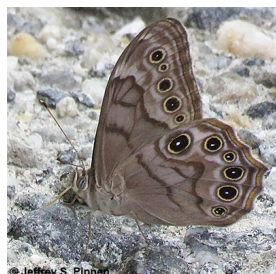

Common Wood-Nymph

Red-spotted Purple

S. Pearly-eye

Creole Pearly-eye

Little Wood-Satyr

Carolina Satyr

Gemmed Satyr

Bottom row species usually found in forested or partial forested habitats

Please visit www.jeffpippen.com/butterflies/nc-butterflies.htm to see more examples of these species plus additional, less common species not depicted in this Quick ID Guide

NC Coastal Plain Common (mostly) Skippers 1

Carolinas Butterfly Monitoring Program | ver. 31 Mar 2024

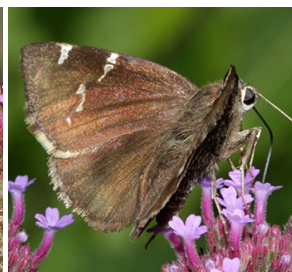

Long-tailed Skipper

Silver-spotted Skipper

Hoary Edge

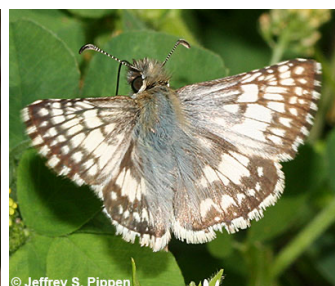

S. Cloudywing

N. Cloudywing

Com. Checkered-Skipper
(female)

Com. Checkered-Skipper
(male)

Common Sootywing
(uncommon, ironically)

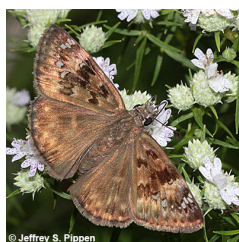

Zarucco Duskywing

Sleepy Duskywing
(spring only)

Juvenal's Duskywing
(spring only)

Horace's Duskywing
(female)

Horace's Duskywing
(male)

Wild Indigo Duskywing

Swarthy Skipper

Dusted Skipper
(rare; spring only)

Zabulon Skipper
(female)

Clouded Skipper

Ocola Skipper

Swarthy Skipper

Dusted Skipper
(rare; spring only)

Zabulon Sk. female

Clouded Skipper

Ocola Skipper

Please visit www.jeffpippen.com/butterflies/nc-butterflies.htm to see more examples of these species plus additional, less common species not depicted in this Quick ID Guide

NC Coastal Plain Common (mostly) Skippers 2

Carolinas Butterfly Monitoring Program | ver. 31 Mar 2024

Fiery Skipper male

Fiery Skipper female

Sachem male

Sachem female

Zabulon Skipper male

Delaware Skipper

Least Skipper

S. Broken-Dash

Crossline Skipper

Whirlabout

Little Glassywing

Dun Skipper

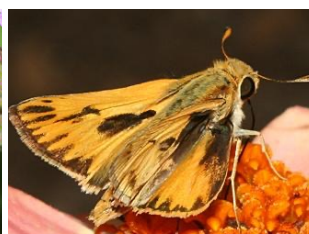

Tawny-edged Skipper

Dion Skipper

Zabulon Sk., male

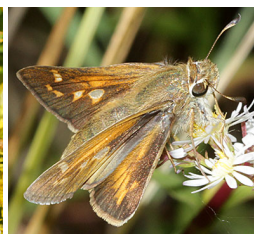

Fiery Sk. male

Fiery Sk. female

Sachem male

Sachem female

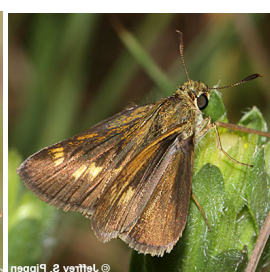

Little Glassywing

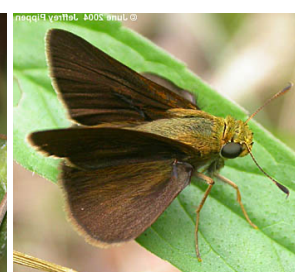

S. Broken-Dash

Crossline Sk. male

Crossline Sk. female

Dun Skipper

Please visit www.jeffpippen.com/butterflies/nc-butterflies.htm to see more examples of these species plus additional, less common species

Less Commonly Seen NC Coastal Plain Butterflies

Carolinas Butterfly Monitoring Program | ver. 31 Mar 2024

Top two rows are fairly widespread species but are rare/uncommon or locally common

Byssus Skipper

Broad-winged Skipper

Yehl Skipper

Eufala Skipper
(very small)

Eufala Skipper
(very small)

Carolina Roadside-Sk.
(restricted to habitats with "cane" )

Lace-winged Roadside-Sk.

Southern Skipperling
(tiny)

Salt Marsh' Skipper
(small and restricted to tidewater areas)

Salt Marsh Skipper

3rd row are mostly restricted to coastal counties, are uncommon to rare, and are only in specialized habitats

Palatka Skipper

Aaron's Skipper

Berry's Skipper

Dukes' Skipper

Twin-spot Skipper

4th row are mostly restricted to specialized habitats and are often difficult to find/uncommon/rare

King's Hairstreak

Edwards' Hairstreak

Striped Hairstreak

S. Oak Hairstreak

Georgia Satyr

Please visit www.jeffpippen.com/butterflies/nc-butterflies.htm to see more examples of these species plus additional, even more uncommon species not shown here